

Join us for a very special Zoom Webinar with Forensic Forester Tom Wessels

Tom Wessels is a terrestrial ecologist and professor emeritus at Antioch University, as well as the author of Reading the Forested Landscape, Forest Forensics, The Granite Landscape, The Myth of Progress, and New England's Roadside Ecology.

On Saturday, January 27
From 9:00 to 10:00 am

Using photographs submitted by participants Tom will demonstrate methods for reading forest landscapes the way we might solve a mystery. If you have pictures of interesting things you have encountered, such as growth patterns, evidence of forest disturbance (either natural or human-made), or unique geological features, to be analyzed during the webinar, please send them to us.
